MOLTEN METAL KILLS WORKMAN WHEN FURNACE HANG DROPPED.

Great White Heated Mass Came Pouring Through Side of Scottdale Stack, Spilling Over Victims.

JNO. CROUSHON DIES INSTANTLY

While Denny Dale, Another Workman,
Is So Badly Burned That He May Not Recover—Accident One Always Fears at Furnaces.

SCOTSDALE, Dec. 17.—By the breaking of a side of the Scottdale furnace the hot contents poured out about 5 o'clock this morning, burning one man to death and another very seriously. They were:

DEAD.
John Croushon, aged 28, single, a laborer, was killed by the mass of metal and burned to a crisp, still standing erect where death caught him.

INJURED.
Denny Dale, blowboss, married, aged 45. Terribly burned about his face, arms and legs. Was removed to his home on Mulberry street about 7 o'clock. The physicians say that his recovery may be saved.

For several days there has been a heavy crust of stuff sticking in the stack and the furnace and coke was being poured in to start it. The hang log about 5 o'clock this morning, and the force was so great that it burst through the side of the stack, pouring tons of metal, limestone and coke out of the opening. Mr. Dale and the other man were standing close by, the former making a leap for safety as the metal came down, but the other man seems to have been transfixed or did not know the danger.

The explosion caused a great deal of excitement, and it was some little time before the men could be gotten out. Several physicians were called and worked for a time getting Mr. Dale in shape that he could be removed to his home about 7 o'clock.

After the accident there was a scene of excitement about the place, the wreckage and the report that several men had been killed making a turmoil. An added danger for a while was the falling of the electric wires which were blazing from contact and presented a grave danger to all who were there before the power was shut off.

The furnace was running full at about 300 tons capacity. The accident is one against which precaution is always taken but which often occurs.

STIRS OFFICIALDOM.

Congressman Hobson Makes Startling
Address on Subject of War
With Japan.

United Press Telegram.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 17.—Richard Pearson Hobson stirred up a storm in the University Club audience largely composed of Senators and Representatives, declaring the present mood of the nation is one of the most dangerous in its history. He declared the "yellow peril" is a real menace to the United States.

He detailed the tremendous increase in Japan's war resources since the Russian war and declared 100,000 trained Japanese soldiers compose the Hawaii army corps. He pointed out that Japan is ready in everything for war with the United States except a pretext and thought it had that in the San Francisco situation, said Roosevelt was in the diplomatic, said the role of Santiago.

The Call of the Chorus Appeals to Councilmen.

President George Porter of Town Council announced this morning that efforts will be made to hold a Council meeting this evening for the purpose of many counter attractions in town. With the brass band and two theatrical attractions here all at the same time, it is an open question how a quorum can be secured. Under the present arrangement of the body, if one member is absent from either side of the house, the others of his faction are forced to drop out.

It was impossible to get a quorum to meet on a recent night last September and the theatrical attractions may be as magnetic tonight.

The most important matters to come before Council are those pertaining to the fire department. An ordinance has been prepared for the reorganization of the local fire fighting body, and this, President Porter says, should be given immediate attention. In addition to this, representatives of several hose manufacturing houses and makers of hook and ladder wagons will be present, in the hope of securing their orders.

Rev. J. J. Huston of the Second ward is out of town today, but stated that he would return in time to attend the meeting. It is believed, however, that the call of the chorus and the status of the black face comedians will be too strong for Councilman William McCormick, John Dean and D. P. Girard to miss. If so, it is a safe bet that another Council meeting will be "postponed."

Seventy-Five Miners Killed By an Explosion of Dust.

Forty Bodies Have Been Taken From Ill-Fated Yolande Mine Where Two Years Ago the Lives of 112 Miners Were Snuffed Out

United Press Telegram.
YOLANDE, Ala., Dec. 17.—At noon today 40 bodies had been removed from the Yolande mine, in which an explosion occurred yesterday morning. It is now estimated that about 75 miners lost their lives in the mine. The remainder of the bodies, it is expected will be recovered by this evening. Entrances have been gained to all parts of the pit by rescuing parties and the air currents have been re-established. The accident was due to a dust explosion. Two years ago a similar explosion resulted in the loss of 112 miners.

The mine has been pronounced free from gas by state inspectors. The explosion and below the second and right sub-entry. The mines go down something like 1,500 feet. There was a terrific explosion the force was made known by the dust and timbers that were blown out in great quantities, destroying small buildings nearby and landing some distance away. There was a terrific blast near the shaft after the explosion.

Officers of the mining company immediately took steps to start a rescue party to get to the men inside. The mine was started and other means employed to eliminate the bad air. Within an hour 14 men had crawled out of the mine and their description of the interior conditions were terrific. Several of these were severely burned.

Yolande is 35 miles south of Birmingham. The Yolande Coal and Coke Company, owner of the mine, is headed by Dr. G. B. Crowe of Birmingham.

GOLDFIELD, Dec. 17.—(Special.)—Operators at hearing before Commissioner Niel, sum up the following recommendations:

REV. J. M. BARNETT DIES AT MARKLETON

Aged and Prominent Minister of the Presbyterian Church.

HELD MANY IMPORTANT OFFICES

In the Church and Was Long Identified With Redstone Presbyterian, Father of Col. J. E. Barnett, Formerly of Tenth Regiment.

Rev. John M. Barnett, aged 81 years, five months and 28 days, one of the founders of Markleton, Pa., and also one of the most prominent and widely known ministers in the Presbyterian church of Western Pennsylvania, died this morning at 9 o'clock after a brief illness.

Rev. Barnett had been ailing for the past several years, but was able to be out, having paid a visit to friends here several weeks ago. The body will be taken to Washington, Pa., this afternoon for interment. Arrangements for the time of the funeral have not yet been made.

SETTLEMENT LOOKED FOR.

Opening of Druce Grave Will Clear the London Mystery.
LONDON, Dec. 17.—(Special.)—A settlement of the Druce mystery is expected tomorrow when the grave of "T. C. Druce" said to be filled with lead is to be opened. If lead is found it will prove the claim of G. H. Druce that his father and the Duke of Portland are the same man, and establish his claim to a Dukedom.

If the body is found the case collapses.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE

Passengers Held in Trolley Car Covered by Wrecked Freight Train.

FIFTEEN PEOPLE WERE INJURED.

None of Them Seriously, However. Accident Happened on West Penn at Continental No. 1 Yesterday Afternoon at Perkyville Crossing.

Many passengers narrowly escaped death or serious injury in a wreck on the Lockwood division of the West Penn Railroad at Continental No. 1 yesterday afternoon. Car No. 212, coming towards Uniontown at 4.30, was run down by a freight train on the Coal Lick branch of the Pennsylvania railroad and almost totally demolished. The escape of passengers was remarkable. There were about 30 people on the car at the time. Fifteen were slightly injured, but the rest escaped without being hurt.

Conductor C. D. Varnell went ahead to flag the crossing. Whether he failed to see an approaching freight train or the motorman misunderstood his signal has not yet been ascertained, but the car had hardly started on the tracks when a string of cars, with the engine in the rear, hit the trolley coach with such force that it was turned over on its side. The first box car toppled over the coach and the coupling broke. The second box car also rose on top of the plumed trolley.

All managed to crawl out the rear door of the trapped car except Mrs. Alfred Bonstein, aged 18, of Reverse, who was pinned by the knee and held in a precarious position.

Superintendent W. C. Mullen of Continental was one of the first men on the scene. He quickly took charge of the rescue work and by picking his way under the freight cars, prevented them from crushing the trolley coach. This made the rescue of Mrs. Bonstein an easy matter.

The most seriously injured were: New, Alfred Bonstein, aged 18, of Reverse; severe bruise on left knee.

Mrs. Jennie Stiles, aged 25, of Reverse; over left eye, right hip broken, right arm injured.

L. S. Dunn, aged 35, New Britain; ligaments of right leg torn, left arm injured.

SOAKED FOR COSTS.

Jury Acquits Young Fellows for Alleged Hallowe'en Prank.

THE BAXTER CASE IS ON.

Charge of Failing to Return Laundry is Made Against Connellville Restaurant Man—By F. O. Goodwin. Other Cases Being Tried.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 17.—John H. Barnes of Saydettown will pay the costs in his case charging malicious mischief against Floyd Cox, John Ranker, Albert Ranker, Roger Decker, Henry Wilson, Charles Wilson, William Bailey and Lloyd Sullivan for an alleged Hallowe'en prank. The jury found the defendants not guilty. According to Barnes, the defendants tore off his gate and took a portion of his fence down on Hallowe'en night, but the jury evidently didn't see things his way.

The only case on before Judge Reed this morning was that of F. O. Goodwin against T. W. Baxter and Della Saxton. The Baxters are charged with larceny by bailment. According to Goodwin the driver of a Connellville Steam Laundry wagon got bundles stolen and left the wrong one at Baxter's house. Since then, Goodwin says, the Baxters have failed to return the goods.

Charles Hicks pleaded guilty before Judge Umel today to charges of felonious assault and battery. During a row at Shady Grove park last summer Hicks is alleged to have severely cut policeman George Reynolds of Uniontown with a knife.

William Warman of George township was found not guilty of desertion of a non-support, preferred by Mary Warman. His wife charged that he deserted her in 1906.

The case of Jefferson Sutton of Fairview, charged with aggravated assault and battery on his wife, Mary E. Sutton, is being tried before Judge Umel. The jury in the same case is out in the case of Edward Walker, charged with assault and battery on William and Thomas Hays.

LARGE SUMS SENT ABROAD; FOREIGNERS USE MONEY ORDERS.

One Italian Gets Ten $100 Orders at the Local Postoffice and Sends Them to Himself in Italy.

THEY TRUST IN UNCLE SAM.

Most of Those Returning to Old Countries Keep Only Enough to Pay Expenses and Send Rest by Mail—Real Cash Remains in Regio.

With the approach of the Yuletide holidays, Uncle Sam's postal money orders are in demand, particularly among the foreign element. Although the average foreigner may at times become untrusting of banks, he has abundant confidence in the stability and strength of this great republican government.

Ample evidence of this may be seen at every money order postoffice, particularly in the coke region. The Connellville office during the past few weeks has been literally swamped with money order applications. As it takes about ten days to get a money order to its destination in the old countries, the demand is now slowly falling off, as far as the foreign element is concerned, although the English speaking people still find much use for them.

Most of the money orders are made payable to the one who has them issued. The foreigners, on their way to their homes abroad, take only enough money with them to pay their expenses, sending the rest by mail in the shape of a money order, which they have cashed on reaching their destination.

The Italians are in the majority securing money orders from the Connellville office. Likewise are they carrying off the record. The limit for a single order is $100. Several days ago an Italian presented $1,000 and asked for 10 orders written to the limit. The fee amounted to $2. Shortly after he left another Italian took six $100 orders. Hundreds of dollars have been sent to the old countries in this manner. The real cash was left in the territory where it was made.

Those in the postal service think the foreigners are not so much responsible for the financial stringency as some people would have it believed.

CHORUS GIRLS

Gallop Swoop Down on the Town Today With Two Big Theatrical Companies.

Connellville today is a real theatric town. Scores of thirty ruffies of chorismen are thronging the streets this afternoon looking for rooms and taking in the sights. While they won't admit that things look so good as the Great White Way, the town will do, they are in fact, the town looks so good that six members of the "Chor Singer" company, which is the Christmas attraction at the New Soloson, have decided to make their headquarters here until after their date has been filled. Show business has been busy with them, and they will recuperate with the cold, wintry breezes of the coke region.

There are over 100 chorus girls in town today, all of them daily, children and all the other adjectives describing what a chorus girl should be and sometimes is.

Of course all in town today could catch a glimpse of a chorus girl, but only those who are in the city until after the "Ham Truss," which showed there last night.

"Ham Truss" played a comedy last night. Cannot recommend it too highly.

Pittsburg Gets a Lemon.

In spite of its reputation as a good show town, Pittsburg people complain that they are being handed a lemon in the shape of identical bookings.

Casinos Defeated.

The Casinos of Connellville were defeated Saturday night by the Dunbar bowling five on the Wagner alleys at Dunbar.

Plans New Hotel.

C. H. Gorley has completed a new building on East Main street, Uniontown, and will equip it as a hotel. He will apply for a license in the spring.

The Chaser Was Chased; Mule Turns the Tables.

Although the West Penn deals in a cattle power, it employs a pair of mules, Maud and Babe, around the New Haven car barns. And thereby hands a tale.

Residents of the staid and dignified New Haven were astonished by the strange sight of a man chasing a mule and the mule chasing the man Sunday afternoon. The mule was Babe and the man was Storekeeper W. C. Edwards.

Finding it necessary to go to the power house, Mr. Edwards decided to hitch up one of the mules and drive over. At 1 o'clock he selected Babe and brought her outside. Maud stuck her head through the window of the stable and looked on with silent and suppressed amusement. Babe objected to being hitched up. She expressed her objection by nailing off a hind foot, narrowly missing Edwards' car. Then she ran off.

Edwards started in chase, but Babe turned on him and sent him dodging under and around the wagon. Then Maud came in from New Haven, with Edwards trailing behind. In front of the Columbia hotel the chase became hot and continued to until the Pennsylvania tracks were reached. Then Babe turned around and chased Edwards back to the hotel. After this scene, the two hitched up the Pennsylvania tracks and finally Babe returned to the barn. Edwards finally secured assistance and had the satisfaction of getting the recalcitrant animal hitched in the shafts.

ANOTHER DUSTY MINE DISASTER.

The cycle theory concerning mine accidents has been proven again. The course of disaster runs South. It began in Pennsylvania. Let us hope it has ended in Alabama. But let no miner or mine manager assume it to be a fact, but let all redouble their vigilance, for in that alone lies safety.

The cycle theory is interesting, but not practical. The Yolande mine was dry and thought to be free from gas. In the absence of any information on the point, we must assume that open lights were used. The accident is attributed to a dust explosion caused by a "windy" shot. Mating experts tell us that dust does not explode unless mixed with gas, and if the explosion was due to a mixture of gas and dust, as seems more probable, the cause might have been an open light just as well as a "windy" shot.

It seems that the Monongah and Yolande explosions have been due to similar causes and dust. Thought to be free from gas, and in both the open lights were used. The Monongah explosion is attributed to an electric spark; the Yolande, to a heavy shot; but it is possible that both may have been caused by an open light, and it is almost certain that both mines contained gas in small quantities but large enough in combination with fine coal dust to create an explosive atmosphere. It is possible, also, that outside atmospheric conditions may have played some part in both tragedies.

It is evident that mining practice is not yet perfect in the matter of guarding against explosions. The trio of disasters should be closely investigated by experts to the end that subsequent occurrences of these horrors may be averted or at least mitigated.

THE WEST PENN. TROLLEY ACCIDENT.

The responsibility for the West Penn trolley accident is not clear. The only presumption in favor of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is that under the rules it has the right-of-way, but even this fact does not excuse reckless running on the part of its trainmen.

It is an open and notorious fact that the railroaders of the Connellsville coal region are careless of the public safety. From every borough and village through which their trains run comes frequent and passionate protests against their utter indifference to the lives and limbs of the citizens and their families. The economy of railroading does not seem to consider the rights of the public.

The West Penn trolley system, on the contrary, has provided every appliance and adopted every precaution to protect its passengers and the public from danger. This fact should always be set down in mitigation of its misdoings.

The re is room for legislation on this subject, and it would be founded in more justice than the 2-cent fare bill.

FIRE PROTECTION AND INSURANCE.

The Town Council is scheduled for a meeting this evening. One of the items on the agenda is whether or not there will be a meeting, but public sentiment is unanimous as to the duty of the members.

Recent experiences have demonstrated the necessity for better fire protection in the way of the better equipment of the fire department as in its better organization and its further enlargement.

The town is paying pretty dearly for this condition. Its insurance bills are actually prohibitive. The property owner is forced to become his own insurer. He is compelled to take a chance with the devastating element at a risk of being bankrupted at one fiery blow.

Uniontown is facing a similar condition. The underwriters have put the matter plainly before the authorities. Better fire protection will be followed by lower insurance rates; poorer protection by higher rates.

The proposition is so plain that he who runs may read it.

NO MERCY FOR THE WILFULLY WICKED.

The Health Officer has notified the quality of milk furnished to Connellsville people, perhaps not without reason, but the officer should not overlook the important fact that it is his duty to prosecute as well as to denounce such infractions of the law, the enforcement of which is his plain and positive duty.

While it is better to err on the side of mercy, it is evil to permit positive injury to the public, or to individual citizens, through leniency to those who would sacrifice others merely for the sake of private gain.

The mercy of the law is only for those who have ceased to sin and are truly repentant for their misdeeds, not for those who would continue their evil ways. There should be no consideration shown for anyone who vendered, or for those who neglect or refuse to abate nuisances after due notice given them.

These are the wilful and wicked sinners; not the remorseful and reformed.

The vaccination law will be enforced in the Dunbar township schools, without the consent of the Somerset county anti-vaccinationists. The school authorities prefer to have the theories of a few than to expose the many children under their care to a loathsome and dangerous disease.

The Honeymooners won't sit under the shade of the sheltering Elm Tree to-night.

The Beaver county Black Hand case seems to have been just an ordinary case of blackmail.

Our fighting fleet had plenty of wind of every sort to start with.

Business, not politics, is the motto of the Scottsboro Town Council.

The future postoffice of Connellsville will be permanently located near the business center of the town, no more, under hygienic influences, to perpetually room and erratically rest.

We are sorry to lose County Detective McBeth as a citizen of this county, but he resisted the blandishments of Uniontown for many long years, and he is not too.

Let us hope that the Scottsboro blast furnace explosion is not the beginning of a cycle.

The mule whose name was Maud has been located in Greenwood and is teaching the Babe her tricks.

Uncle Sam's money looks good to the foreigners. Some of them prefer postal notes to bank drafts. The Era of Distrust has not entirely subsided. Suspicion is the companion of ignorance.

The insurance interests are hot-foot after the coal-field fire departments.

The amusement attractions of Connellsville will try the public spirit of the Town Councilmen this evening.

Many are called but not all are chosen to follow employment.

A small bunch of belligerent citizens are determined to commemorate Reckless for the expediency and to have war with Japan. They do not supply represent American sentiment.

The American Armada is merely on a cross parade.

Bowling has become quite popular in Connellsville. It is a good game so long as it doesn't get too wet.

We have no curfew bell, but people out late at night have to give an account of themselves in these busy, bustling times.

The Catholic clergy of America will find no rest here in their Christmas stockings this year. More's the pity.

Comptroller Ridgely has made a study of the marks and the numbers that inhabit the seas of finance, and he is no nature faker.

The fascinations of the game of bridge are sometimes great enough to bridge the ocean.

The Lieberkranz will play the Santa Claus act in the German style.

The blandishments of the skating rink confront the Fayette county teachers at Uniontown. A good teacher should not get a single status on.

The more one buys of the 2-cent mileage books on West the less one gets for his money.

These meetings have been very uplifting. Up to Sunday evening, December 8, there 14 converts into the church on profession of faith, leaving 13 still at the altar. At each service the pastors are greeted with full houses, and the interest seems to be increasing. On Sunday evening, December 10, there were 20 at the altar and 40 additions to the church on profession of faith. The meetings on profession of faith will continue every night this week. The total for the two weeks of the members received into the church to Sunday evening, December 10, was 50. All are cordially invited to attend.

ROCKWOOD.

Bright Paragraphs From the Big Somerset County Chronicle.

ROCKWOOD, Dec. 17.—The Lythian church, held in the Lythian church on Sunday evening was well attended in spite of the very inclement weather, the church being filled to the limit.

Mr. B. H. Collins, who has been a faithful member of the Lythian church for over 14 years, presided over the service in which he pointed out the excellent qualities of the subjects of praise and the great thanksgiving which is being made in the United States today. No doubt the Lythian church will be greatly strengthened by this service.

The highest held in the Lythian church in New Centerville on Saturday evening for the benefit of the New Centerville fund, proved to be a success financially and otherwise. A good number of people were present from this place to attend and the majority expressed surprise at the talent displayed at this, the first public entertainment given by the Lythian.

The young man was looking out of the window of his car when his head struck a box car on another track. He was taken to a hospital where it is thought he will not recover.

We are now in the midst of real winter weather. Snow has been falling continuously for the past several days, and the ground is now covered with about seven inches of the beautiful. Yesterday a strong wind blew from the northwest, piling the snow in the hollows. Sleeting is reported to be here.

SCOTSDALE COUNCIL.

Interesting Report Made on the Suit of Borough vs. E. L. Rutherford.

FIRE MATTERS DISCUSSED.

Borough Engineer Having Trouble in Getting Data for Sewer Report Demanded by State—Other Subjects Discussed.

SCOTSDALE, Dec. 17.—The mid-month meeting of the Town Council was a busy session of Monday night and lasted until 10:30. In the matter of the resolution offered, naming several streets and alleys in the plan of lot laid out by Jacob L. Graft A. O. Evans was one of the property owners present and entered his objections, so that action was deferred on the matter for that the borough can assume it self that it will not be held liable for damages that may result by the changes, but felt that the property owners should be liable for any damages since the benefit would accrue to them.

A representative of the Board of Unionwriters was in town recently and reported that some of the fire by products of the Citizens' Water Company were leaking and needed packing. A resolution was passed by the Council to notify the water company to fix their hydrants or their bill would be scaled down in proportion to the amount of plugs found defective. The Fire and Water Committee reported previously that they have been after the water company for being held up by the refusal of former Borough Engineer I. D. Evans to give the necessary data required for the reports on the North Side Land Company and the Loucks estate. Both parties have given him written orders to secure the data but there is a hitch between him and Mr. Evans. He was instructed to report the matter to the State Department and have them secure the data. This was the last resort in the question.

The recent explosion of gas in the sewer opposite the flouring mill on Broadway was due to the belief of the Borough Engineer and several witnesses from leaking natural gas. The Street Commissioner T. W. May reported that he saw the explosion and had a talk with Jesse Sneed, the Superintendent of the Fayette Gas Company, and that the latter told him that he would make an investigation. J. O. Landenberg was present regarding an arc light asked for on Loucks avenue and B street and the Secretary was instructed to find out how far up Loucks avenue is improved.

Attorneys Smith and Snyder presented E. L. Rutherford, presented a claim which had been placed in their hands for collection against the borough for a balance of taxes due him as collector as appears from the auditors' report for the years 1901 and 1902, amounting to $153.62 with interest on the same from the date of payment to the borough. Mr. O'Connor made a motion seconded by Mr. Trow that the attorneys be notified in reply that the borough will give Mr. Rutherford that amount of money on his paying on Mulberry street for which he entered no lien, and which amounts to $108 which has never been paid. The motion was passed.

The Committee on Investigation submitted the following report of the suit of the Borough vs. E. L. Rutherford at given to the Committee by the Borough Attorneys as follows: The case was called for trial on Tuesday, December 3. At the close of the testimony for the plaintiff the counsel for the defendant moved for a compulsory non-suit. The court in entering judgment of compulsory non-suit based its reasons mainly on the fact that the defendant had pleaded the Statute of Limitations. Counsel for the defendant contended that the proof was not sufficient to show the receipt of the money by Rutherford which the Borough claims went to him from the late J. S. Allingworth Tax Collector. The court in his opinion in ruling on the question intimated that there might not be adequate proof of all this money going into his hands but admitted in evidence the cash book in which it appears that the greater part of this money did go into his hands. It is also admitted by the pleadings that he received something over $100,000 from various sources. The argument of counsel for the defendant, however, was based largely on the plea of the Statute of Limitations, and the opinion of the court was almost altogether to that effect. The case, holding, that within the last six years the testimony shows that Rutherford had overpaid his account to the Borough and as to the items back of the six years, the Statute of Limitations applied. The evidence however shows that during all the period he was largely indebted to the Borough.

In view of the testimony developed in the case, it was voted that the Council was fully justified in prosecuting the case. The case was argued this morning before the court on a motion to take off the non-suit.

In presenting the report, Mr. O'Connor laid stress upon the fact that the same was prepared upon the judges' decision and prepared by attorneys, and that it was not the work of any layman. The report was unanimous by adopted.

Mr. O'Connor then remarked that some industrious citizens had been spreading a report about town that the investigation and suit has cost the Borough $10,000. Mr. O'Connor said that he contended he knows nothing of what it cost the other side but that the cost for the trial ran but little over $1,400 for the Borough. The total cost of the entire investigation amounted to between $3,700 and $3,800 so far counting in the costs of the last case. The members of Council present were D. C. Baker, L. R. Cleber, R. F. Ellis, I. C. Horne, H. G. Martz, J. O'Connor, J. G. Tediow, and President A. E. Evans. Business William Ferguson also met with Council.

The recent destructive fire on Pikeburg Street was discussed and Council expressed itself as being pleased with the good work of the fire department. Orders were given that the fire police exercise their authority in dealing with those who work not members and rushed in snow orders and interfered with the firemen. On Saturday night a lot of people were complained of shouting orders and trying to run things. A couple of people growed off, the fireman who were trying to get at the hidden suborn blaze.

A GREAT SHOW

is on this Week at Magic Land With Lola's Trained Dogs as a Feature.

It is very difficult to determine the headliner at Magic Land this week. Golden and Bogard the black face comedians and Lola's puppies are both running a strong heat for first favor among the patrons of the progress. Little theatre. The comedians are de-lighting their audiences every afternoon and evening while Lola with his intelligent little canines is passing a novel act that is at once pretty and wonderful. The intelligence of the dogs is remarkable.

Dolly Varden (the singing song brook) has a catchy, sweet voice and is sure to get a round of applause after her act. Last but not least on the program is fascinating Pearl Davis port with her pretty songs. She is a favorite with Magic Land patrons. She has two new songs this week that are making a decided impression. The motion pictures are also clever.

SHERMAN PROVANCE DEAD.

Dunbar Man Passed Away Sunday of Typhoid Fever.

DUNBAR, Dec. 17.—Sherman Provance who resided about a half mile above the furnace died Sunday morning at his home of typhoid fever and yellow jaundice after an illness of about a month. Mr. Provance was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Provance who were old settlers of this community. He was a young man of quiet disposition and was well liked by every person who knew him. He was in his 22nd year and leaves a wife who was Miss Lottie Ramm of this place and two brothers George and Alva of Dunbar. Mr. Provance was employed at the Smet Solvay plant and until about a month ago was connected with the Charleston in the Wilson & Wisnart building. The house session was limited to 25 minutes and little business in the introduction of bills was had. The speaker announced the adjournment of the committee on appropriations. Both houses agreed to adjourn on Saturday to the Christmas holidays, the recess to continue January 4. The house then adjourned until Thursday.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

The 54th Session Is Now in Full Swing at Uniontown.

THE ATTENDANCE IS OVER 700.

Instructors Get Down to Work Immediately After the Opening Yesterday Afternoon—Notes From a Courier Correspondent.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 17.—The 54th annual Teachers' Institute was called to order promptly at 1:40, Rev. W. S. Fowman conducting the devotional exercises. Prof. A. B. Morton gave a very good musical drill. Dr. Moss of California spoke on "Our Educational Progress." His talk was interesting from the standpoint that he was telling the teachers to action. He said: "This has been the red letter year for the schools. Fayette county has been making greater progress than any of our neighboring counties, but the system of the State is in need of being perfected. Two High School Inspectors have been appointed recently and a commission of seven has been appointed by Governor Stuart, according to an Act of the last Legislature, to cut our old laws and suggest new legislation. The teachers should all use their influence to bring about the best possible legislation."

Miss Jane Lang made a very good impression as a soloist. Dr. R. A. Armstrong gave his introductory address and he pleased his audience. Miss Marshall made a very good impression as a reader.

Dr. Stetson of Maine urged that the children should not be brought into school too young. He thinks eight is young enough for a child to enter. He said further: "The child is buried with text books and chloroformed with memorizing. The child when he enters school is accustomed to look and ask questions. The purpose of education is not so much knowledge as it is culture."

The lecture by Dr. Frehes on "Twentieth Century Opportunities," was enjoyed very much. He does not save the reputation of Graves but he made his hearers forget about him. The music of the evening was a pleasant feature.

Institute Notes.

Prof. Finch of Uniontown was the first in line to enroll.

John L. Kiefer, former Supervising Principal of Dunbar township, was looking up his old associates. He is up among the newspaper men now.

W. T. Kennedy has been in the box office selling tickets for the night entertainment for 32 years. He is entitled to a pension.

The special car for Conneltsville, which was scheduled to leave at 4:30 P. M., is still in Uniontown.

The teachers are sorry that Mrs. McDonald is not here to sing the old Scotch ballads.

Dr. Moss always has many old admirers and friends here. Many of the teachers in Fayette and older students of the normal being among them.

Ex-Superintendent J. S. Carroll of Dunbar was in the gallery during the afternoon session. The teachers felt as though he should be back on the stage.

Prof. F. E. Younk called a meeting of the members of the Fayette Teachers' Association after the opening session. He believes, if it is a good thing, urge it along or drop it.

Prof. W. S. Hertzog of California was recently appointed one of the High School Inspectors. He is well known in Fayette and all of the teachers join in the congratulations. He entered on his new duties on Monday.

There was nothing out of the ordinary in the program this morning. The instructors filled their places and commanded close attention from their audience. There was a large attendance of visitors in the gallery. The entertainment for this evening will be the Elmer B. Smith Company, and the seat sale for it has been large.

As Old Santa Claus Would 1 Parents and Lovers of Child

The child is a real philosopher. He alone enjoys the present alone does not discount its joys by memories of the past or anticipations of the future. "Once upon a time" means now to him. "I get to be a man means now." He is with far more pleasure than the fact were true, a soldier, sailor, policeman, now.

At the one time in life when the height of enjoyment is possible, is it not a duty to give the little ones all the fun there is?

This store thinks so. The Wright-Metzler Company Toy Store is determined that no wish of childhood shall go ungratified this Christmas if we can help it and that the cost shall be as little as it can.

THE NEW SOISSON READY FOR OPENING

Last Finishing Touches Put

Today.

A TREAT IN STORE FOR PATRONS

When Geo. M. Cohan's Honey-mooners
Come Tonight—A Band Concert and Big Orchestra Side Features of the Opening.

The formal opening of Connellsville's newest and most play house, the Soisson Theatre, will take place this evening, and everything is in readiness for the curtain to be rung up on "The Honey-mooners." George M. Cohan's latest and best musical comedy, "The Honey-mooners," will be put on this morning. With the exception of the port-a-cochere, which is still incomplete, nothing is left undone. An unavoidable delay was encountered in erecting the fine new entrance, for the parts were too bulky to be shipped by express and could not reach here in time by freight.

Manager Fred Robbins moved into his new office in the theatre this morning and from there will direct his various theatrical enterprises, of which the New Soisson is the largest. Manager Robbins' office is found to the right of the main entrance of the theatre.

Yesterday and this morning the electricians were busy with the connecting details of the lighting arrangement. All of this has been completed, ed, the new curtains are swung and all await the opening of the evening. A treat has been prepared for the theatrical patrons this evening, when the Connellsville Military Band will give a concert in front of the new play house. The musical attractions tonight are varied and diverse. In addition to the band, Kierle's complete orchestra will be on hand and assist in rendering the dainty bits of musical melody offered in "The Honey-mooners."

It will be useless to describe the new play house now. Those who attend tonight can prepare for a most enjoyable surprise. The theatre and the fixtures are all that has ever been claimed for them, with a little more added. All of the seats down stairs and the first four rows of the balcony are leather covered. The entire orchestra is covered by a heavy carpet, and not merely the aisles, as in many theatres.

The comfort of the players has not been neglected. Each dressing room is carpeted and supplied with large mirrors, wash stands and other comforts seldom found on the road.

COHAN'S BRIGHTEST

Play, "The Honey-mooners," Comes as Opening Attraction at New Soisson Theatre Tonight.

Newest, brightest and best of the world famous song shows is "The Honey-mooners," which comes to the New Soisson Theatre tonight. New York critics declared that no prettier production of a musical comedy had ever been seen on Broadway. George M. Cohan likes "The Honey-mooners" best himself. There is more music and song here than in any musical comedy you ever saw and as much plot as in the great melodrama. Cohan is a past master in the art of combining melody and action and there isn't a dull second in "The Honey-mooners." That's of a piece with a powerful, exciting plot worked out to the last detail and yet containing 20 musical numbers.

Mr. Cohan personally selected and drilled this chorus, which is considered the most efficient on the road and the best to look at. The girls are clothed in the latest Paris costume and wearing the latest in make-up, and nothing is left undone to give them a look and a finish to the place whose plot, combining new melodies, and mistaken identity, is laid in the small town of "Honey-moon." In the powerful cast are such famous way farers as Lola Morris, Kay Campbell, Maud Morris, May Williams, Willie Dandy, Andrew O'Neil, George May, Albert Stewart, Dan Sullivan, Joe Kearney and M. J. H. "The Honey-mooners" is the brightest of the famous series of famous Cohan song shows, and it comes here superbly presented by a company composed of 60 members.

The book and lyrics of "The Gingerbread Man" to be presented at the New Soisson Theatre, Saturday, matinee and night, December 21, are from the pen of the late Fredrick Barthelme, author of "The Chocolate Boy" and many other great successes, and the music is by A. Baldwin Sloane, composer of many of the most popular and successful light operas of the present day. The scenes of "The Gingerbread Man" are laid in Santa Claus Land and at the border of the realm of King Hama and King Bama Pina. It is a great children's show and is really one of the most in demand productions presented in the American public in a long time. It is the only one of all the musical comedies that are put on that appeals to children and grown people alike.

Life of Splice. R. C. Whitney's first musical comedy, "The Isle of Spice," which will shortly be seen here, is full of fun of the rollicking kind. Its comedy forces hilarity. The chorus is amateur, posh, and possesses a more of that mysterious quality of enthusiasm, technically known as pluck, than that of any other musical production before the public. At the New Soisson Theatre, Thursday evening, December 19.
